

Military Law: Where do I find it?

Presented by Andrea Belanger

JAG Librarian

May 26, 2008

Court Martials

- There were no court martial transcripts before 1968.
- The JAG Library has print copies of Court Martial transcripts from 1968 to Present
- CM decisions are available on the Chief Military Judge website from 2001 – Present
http://www.forces.gc.ca/cmj/decisions_e.asp

Court Martials Con't

- The JAG Library Archives has CM records from WWII as well as CM record sheets the 1980s – Present
- There are also CM records index cards from the 1950s, 1960s, and 1970s.
- Library and Archives Canada holds Court Martial records from the WWI

<http://www.collectionscanada.gc.ca/archivianet/courts-martial/index-e.html>

Court Martial Appeals Court

- CMAC decisions are available in the five volume set “Court Martial Appeal Reports” which covers from 1957 – 1997.
- CMAC decisions are also available online through Quicklaw (1975 - Present) and on the CMAC website (1992 – Present)
- The library also has some CMAC transcripts