Mr. Brian Saunders
Director of Public Prosecutions.
Public Prosecution Service of Canada
284 Wellington Street, 2nd Floor
Ottawa, ON, K1A 0H8

Subject: Kyoto Protocol Implementation Act
and the *Criminal Code

Mr. Saunders :

With Ms.Galligan's letter, you leave me with the clear impression that you did not have the courage nor the moral strength to reply to my letter personally.

The message of my letter was that the Kyoto Protocol Implementation Act is not followed, s. 126 of the Criminal Code seem to apply, serious harm is being done and what are you doing Mr. Director, you, the person appointed for these circumstances by Parliament? After more than 35 years at the Bar and an LL.M., my letter was a polite way to remind you that some citizens are concerned and expect some public reaction from the Director, not necessarily a prosecution, but at least an explanation or position.

In the Friends of the Earth v. Canada decision, the civil court decided not to force the application of the law. If civil courts and criminal courts do nothing to force the government to obey the law, who is going to protect us and ensure the survival of the rule of law?

Sincerely,

François Lareau
